PINNA celebrates 100th delegate

Joyce Tombs has become the 100th delegate on the 'Manager as Coach' course, run by Myerscough based firm, Pinna.

Joyce, a partner at Moore and Smalley was delighted. "We have created a real coaching culture at our practices, and it's proving to be a fantastic catalyst for change within an organisation to make it even better," she said.

Pinna has also received formal Credit Recognition from University of Central Lancashire (UCLAN) for its Certificate in Business and Executive Coaching training programme.

Says Helen Bailey, director at Pinna "Credit recognition is something we're very proud of. We know that it is not something UCLAN grants lightly, and having it sets us apart from everyone else in the North West."

Two of Pinna's programmes now carry the equivalent of a Postgraduate Certificate corresponding to the first year of a Master's degree.
